Dear Friend,

Welcome back to the American Pride Bank e-newsletter. This time of year always makes us think about all of the wonderful things we have for which to be thankful. We're thankful for being a part of such a great community and being in a position to give back. We're thankful for our success and our customers who made that possible. Thank you for your continued business and support.

Thank You,

Elizabeth Spear Zupkow
Director of Marketing

Financial Tip

Online banking, bill paying and shopping are conveniences that most people want to enjoy. And most of the time, high-tech transactions are completed quickly and without a glitch. However, just as with other transactions, in a small percentage of cases something goes wrong. That's why you need to take precautions against theft and errors. More

Our Community

American Pride Bank loves to support a cause. During the month of October, the bank helped raise funds for the Central Georgia affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure. Buttons were available for any customers who made a donation and employees made personal contributions. A team of American Pride Bank employees participated in the Race for the Cure on October 23.

Our Employees

American Pride Bank and its employees try to support our local chambers of commerce whenever possible. In early October bankers Lindsey Carswell, Daryl Cohen and Corey Cargle and customer Chuck Callaway participated in the Macon Chamber Golf Classic, the Greater Macon Chamber of Commerce's largest fundraiser.
